Mission Action Profile (MAP) in Thailand

- Population is 62.6 million, with a per capita GNP of $2560/yr.
- A ministry to the Isaan people (Lao/Thai) in rural north-eastern Thailand. Most of the Isaan people are subsistence farmers with little in the way of cash resources.
- Mennonite Church Canada Witness workers Pat & Rad Houmphan, began work in this region in 1996.
  - Through their ministry a number of Isaans have become Christians.
  - A vibrant church is emerging in five of the 203 villages.
  - The Living Water Church and Community Centre in Borabur has opened as a worship center and as a ministry to young people.
- Pat and Rad's ministry includes:
  - Evangelism and church planting
  - Pastoral ministry
  - Leadership training
  - English teaching
  - Vacation Bible School program for children 10 – 14 years old.
- The Houmphans' envision further ministry reaching into neighbouring districts, and facilitating economic development.

Your support to this ministry will enable this ministry to continue.

$2100 annually will provide leadership training for 7-10 lay leaders.
$240 per month will provide lodging for national staff, a community center and a Sunday worship place.
$200 monthly will support a national evangelist/pastor.
$100 per month will provide emergency medical assistance to needy families.
