

MENNO Project - What is it?

MENNO Project is a two-week work project sponsored by Mennonite Church Canada WITNESS. It includes working in the beautiful mile-high Andean mountains with several Colombian Mennonite congregations, institutions, and the Mennonite retreat center located near Cachipay, Colombia. Begun in 1974, MENNO Project is both an educational experience and an opportunity to contribute to the work of the Colombian Mennonite church.

When does it happen?

January 31 - February 14, 2004

Skills

Knowledge of construction, carpentry, plumbing, or electricity is helpful, but not necessary. Other tasks could include sewing, painting and cleaning.

Arrangements

Lodging and meals are provided. In addition to work projects, time is spent visiting Mennonite churches and ministries, touring, and shopping in Bogotá.

Visits

- MENCOLDES relief and development agency
- JUSTAPAZ Mennonite peace and justice centre
- Home for the elderly
- Mennonite bookstore
- CLARA Anabaptist resource center
- Colombian Mennonite Seminary
- Congregations
- School

Cost

- Round-trip ticket to Bogotá.
- $1250 Canadian per person (for administration, room & board, traveling within the country, tips, restaurant meals, sight seeing and work supplies).
- Personal spending is not included.
- All travel costs are tax deductible.
- Limit: 10 participants on a first-come, first-served basis. Apply early!

It's your opportunity to...

- Hear the stories of faith by those who live with the reality of violence on a daily basis.
- Work at light manual labour such as cleanup, building, sewing, painting...

- Live and fellowship with Colombian brothers and sisters as they cope with demanding and difficult life situations.

- Experience worship in the dynamic Colombian Mennonite churches.

- Enjoy fine Colombian home-cooking and enjoy it with Colombian family and friends in fascinating surroundings.

- Visit a nearby Mennonite school, filled with children eager to learn and to greet you.

- Learn from Colombian sisters and brothers as they learn from you.
- Challenge your faith!
