Listen for God's song: Is God calling us to start a day care in our neighborhood? Whom shall we call as our next pastor? May we serve Communion to believers who are not yet baptized? In Tune With God: The Art of Congregational Discernment helps congregations learn how to make decisions in healthy ways--focused on God's purposes, and growing in love and truth.

Plan a congregational study using In Tune with God to help focus your discussions or work. The book includes stories from real congregations, tips for healthy discernment, a leader's guide, an outline for a one-day retreat, and a series of dialogues to introduce the themes of each chapter.

Celebrate Mennonite-Anabaptist Publishing, Sunday September 26: Mennonite Church Canada has inherited a rich tradition of publishing practical resources from an Anabaptist perspective. Currently, Mennonite Publishing Network serves MC Canada and MC USA congregations with Sunday school and Bible study materials for all ages, church supplies, leadership resources, magazines for home or church use, and books for Mennonites and the broader Christian community.

Please plan to recognize our denomination's commitment to Anabaptist publishing on Sunday, September 26, 2004, designated Mennonite Publishing Sunday. Look for the pdf of a bulletin insert included with this month's Equipping, and copy and include it with your bulletin that Sunday. Also included are suggested bulletin announcements to use the three preceding Sundays. Your assistance in building awareness of our publishing ministry will be greatly appreciated!

Guide congregational leaders with Training Ministry Teams: A Manual for Elders and Deacons. This manual provides practical instruction, guidelines, and training to help pastors and elders or deacons know how to work together as a team.
