Land Chosen by Hoeppner and Bartsch
In 1787
William Schroeder

The agreement included:
Sixty-five cossiatin of arable land for each family.
The right to harvest the hay on a portion of Taven Island.
Some of the woodland on Kairo Island at the mouth of the Dnieper was reserved for Mennonite use.
Exclusive fishing rights in the Dnieper adjacent to their land.