

Reaching Up To God Our Creator

A Mennonite Church
Canada Resource

Come, gather in a circle all people of the earth and reach up to God, our Creator.
From North, South, East and West, the Holy Spirit's whisper draws us together
in respect and love,
humility and honesty,
wisdom, courage and truth,
the harmonic chords of unity.

Reaching up to God our Creator is a collection of resources highlighting the common ground between Aboriginal Sacred Teachings and the wisdom tradition of the Bible. The goal is to foster respect and understanding among Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal communities.

Designed for children, youth and adults, Reaching up to God our Creator includes a variety of tools including:

- Junior and Adult Leader's Guides
- Posters highlighting important teachings
- CD: By Sacred Waters; worship music on a Native American wood cedar flute
- DVDs: Through the Eyes of the Cree and Beyond: Allan Sapp Gallery; Kisemanito Pakitinasuwin—The Creator's Sacrifice
- Books exploring Aboriginal culture
- and more

“The Reaching up to God our Creator collection grows out of the conviction that the wisdom of Jesus Christ, who is revealed as the wisdom of God in the New Testament, has been present in aboriginal sacred teachings for a long time”.

Tom Yoder Neufeld, Associate Professor of Religious Studies (New Testament) and Peace and Conflict Studies, Conrad Grebel University College.

“It is our hope that you will accept this resource as a starting point for entering into a process of reconciliation and of building respectful relationships between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people, within Aboriginal communities, churches and families.

Harley Eagle, Dakota/Anishnawbe Co-Coordinator of Aboriginal Work, Mennonite Central Committee Canada
