Reclaim the Name

G C
Ancient voices proclaim your coming,
G C
Angel's songs fill up the sky.
Em Bm Em
The Spirit's moving, God is with us
Am D
One whose sandals I can't untie.

G C
Yet prison bars have cast some shadows
G C doubts arise, old fears concern
Em Bm Em
'Are you the one who holds the future,
F D
or to another should we turn?'

G D
We will reclaim the name
C Am
We will pray through its strength
C D
Live by its power
G C
We are no longer the same
Am C D
A people transformed, called in this hour
C D G
We will reclaim, we will proclaim, the Name
G C G C

Wine at Cana, loaves and fishes, signs of new creation here.
Healing mercies, living water salvation comes, God has drawn near

Yet the words are harsh, most are offended.
Should we go too? Avoid this strife?
You are bread that, feeds our hun-ger,
You have the words of eternal life.

We will reclaim the name...

Sounds of wind and tongues of fire,
anoint for witness, word and deed.
Nations gather, Spirit preaching hearts unite, no one in need.

But systems fight, resist God moving,
would rather silence than embrace.
Prayers for boldness fill God's people,
send us forward with your grace.

We will reclaim the name...
